SEND WITH THE SCRIPT

Self-recording guide

Reality-TV confessional style: you sit and talk to the camera, deadpan. No interviewer, so prop up your own phone, or let whoever sent you this hold it, and record it in five minutes whenever you have a free moment.

Setup

- Nobody films you. Prop your phone horizontal against a stack of books or a mug, at face height, about an arm's length away. Sit in a chair against a plain wall or a bookshelf.
- Light: face a window or a lamp. Don't sit with a window behind you.
- Eyeline: look just to the side of the lens, as if a producer is sitting next to the phone. Glancing at the lens once or twice is fine.
- Tone: deadpan beats hammy. You are a sincere person who has nothing to hide and is slightly annoyed to be asked.

Recording

- The script: read it from a second screen or a printout taped just under the phone. The (beat) and (pause) marks are where the laughs live. Hold them longer than feels natural.
- Takes: two max. Send the slightly flubbed one. Don't edit anything.
- Length: 60 to 90 seconds. Start recording, wait two seconds, begin. Stop two seconds after the last line.
- Send it: text or AirDrop the raw video to whoever sent you the script. They add the title card and load it onto the classroom laptop.

Making the script yours

Words in [brackets] are adjustable. The facts the kids check (shoe size, where you were, what you wore, how you feel about squishies) live on your Suspect Statement form, not in this video; your answer card tells you what to write there. The box at the top of your script lists the one or two things the video has to agree with, and the lines you should keep word for word. Everything else is flavor. Swap in your real life, your real subject, your real habits. Wear whatever you like. True details get the biggest laughs.

The ask (email or text to each suspect)

Subject: 5 minutes of acting for the 4th grade Halloween party?

Hi [Name],

Mrs. Driscoll's class Halloween party on Oct 30 is a whodunit, and the kids are going to investigate four staff "suspects." Would you be one of the three who record a statement? All it takes is a 90-second video of yourself that you can record alone on your phone whenever you have a free minute. No one films you, no one edits you, and you don't need to attend the party.

Attached are your script and a one-page Suspect Statement form with an answer card. Four answers on the form are scripted so the kids' clues line up; the rest is yours, and true is funnier. The video is a monologue, so just talk to the camera. Quick tips:
• Phone horizontal, propped at face height, plain wall behind you
• Look just beside the lens, like a producer is sitting there
• Deadpan. Sincere. Slightly annoyed to be asked.
• Hold the pauses. Two takes max. Send me the raw video and the filled-in form by [Oct 23].

The kids will watch it on the projector during the party and, I promise, lose their minds. Thank you!

The Custodian gets a different ask: "You're a suspect who declined to comment. That's it. That's the whole job. Please act shifty in the hallway on Oct 30."

VIDEO 2 — THE GYM TEACHER

self-recorded monologue, ~75 sec · Zero information. Genuinely does not understand squishies and is a little offended to be asked.

MAKE IT YOURS (read before you record)

- Your facts live on your Suspect Statement form (answer card attached). On camera, two things have to agree with it: you were in the gym, in the building, at [2:15], and you genuinely don't get squishies. Nothing you wear matters, here or at the party.
- Linked to another clue: the [foam avocado] squishy. The mummy's witness statement and the Chief's confession both mention the avocado one. Change it only if the room parent changes those too.
- Free to change: [dodgeball] (whatever unit you're actually teaching), [inflating/deflating things], [jump rope], [the cones]. Swap in your real gym life.
- Keep exactly: "I just don't understand the obsession these days." The kids will quote it.

Words in [brackets] are yours to adjust. Say them naturally, without the brackets.

(Sit. Whistle around your neck if you have one. Look just beside the camera. You are missing a [dodgeball] unit for this.)

I'm missing a [dodgeball] unit for this, so.

Where was I at [2:15] yesterday? Gym. Where I always am. [Inflating things. Deflating things.] The cycle of life.

Did I go near Mrs. Driscoll's room? I go near every room. The hallway is my warm-up lap.

(long sigh)

Okay. Can I say something about these squishies? I don't see what these kids see in squishies anyway. You squeeze it. It goes back. You squeeze it again. It goes back again. That's it. That's the whole thing. I just don't understand the obsession these days.

(beat)

So no, I didn't take that jar. Why would I take a whole jar of something I don't understand? You want to steal something, steal a good [jump rope]. Those are valuable.

(pause)

And before anyone asks: yes, I have a key to the equipment closet. I have a key to every closet. Nobody's accusing me of stealing [the cones]. (look back up) Are you writing that down?

(beat)

Last thing. Whoever has those squishies: there's a whole class of kids out there who can run a mile but can't go a day without squeezing a [foam avocado]. Think about that.

(stand up)

I'm going back to the gym.

(Walk out of frame. Stop recording.)

ANSWER CARD · THE GYM TEACHER

Your Suspect Statement: what to write

Fill out the attached form in your own handwriting. The four answers marked ★ are scripted, because the detectives check them against printed evidence: copy those exactly. The rest are suggestions; write anything you like, and true is funnier. Hand the form back to whoever sent you this by [Oct 23], with your video.

★ 1. Where were you at 2:15?	The gym. Where I always am.
2. Who can confirm that?	The dodgeballs.
★ 3. Shoe size	10
★ 4. What were you wearing?	Orange. It's a school color. Half the building wears orange.
★ 5. Squishies?	Tick DON'T GET THEM. Explain: "You squeeze it. It goes back. That's it."
6. Inside Mrs. Driscoll's room?	Tick YES. Add: "To return a kickball. Once."
7. Did you take the Jar?	No. If I wanted to steal something, I'd steal a good jump rope.
8. Anything else?	I just don't understand the obsession these days.

Why these answers: Not getting squishies is what clears you (Clue 4, the witness). Don't soften it.
