DETECTIVE ONLY · CASE #1031

How the evidence adds up

Rule of the Bureau: a clue never says who did it. It says who didn't. Each station produces one fact; the squad checks it against the suspects' own statement forms and crosses off whoever doesn't match. Four stations, four suspects, four cross-offs. Whoever is left wasn't on the list.

1 · Do the station
Measure, fizz, decode, or wrap. Every kid has a job.

→

2 · Open the clue
The sealed envelope states the fact in plain words.

→

3 · Check the statements
Read the four forms on the wall (and the case file table).

→

4 · Cross one off
Whoever doesn't match is cleared. Write "Clears:" in the log.

2:28 · How the Chief gets caught

1. A squad says "everyone's crossed off." The Detective: "Then your list is too short. Size 9, in the building at 2:15, wore orange, loves squishies. Who else was in this building yesterday?"
2. The Detective produces the fifth statement form, the Chief's, "filled out for completeness," and pins it to the board.
3. The squad checks it line by line: size 9 ✓, classroom all afternoon ✓, wore orange ✓, "Don't be ridiculous" crossed out, "Fine. Love them." ✓
4. Warrants name the Chief. Video 4 is her confession, and it tells them where the squishies are: "you'd need a very special light."

The breadcrumbs (for the kid who asks "how were we supposed to know?")

- The opening: "Chief Mrs. Driscoll has assured me she is not a suspect."
- After Video 1, the Chief's live flinch: "Candy. ...Mostly. Candy-adjacent."
- The Principal's slip: who told him they were squishies?
- The Librarian saw someone hugging something "like a puppy," which is exactly what the witness saw.
- The Librarian's whisper: "check their feet."

✓ matches the clue · ✗ doesn't match, cross them off
