CASE #1031 · WITNESS STATEMENT

A · FOR SQUAD NIGHTSHADE

Statement of the Mummy

I was on the shelf. I'm always on the shelf. Nobody notices a mummy on a shelf. At 2:15 somebody picked up the Jar, held it very close, reached in, squeezed one, and whispered, "so satisfying." Then they left. Nobody says "so satisfying" about candy.

B · FOR SQUAD RAVEN

Statement of the Mummy

I saw the whole thing. They got as far as the door, stopped, opened the lid, squeezed one. Then closed the lid. Then opened it again and squeezed another one. Then they giggled. Then they left. It took a very long time to leave.

CASE #1031 · WITNESS STATEMENT

C · FOR SQUAD SPECTER

Statement of the Mummy

What I can tell you is this. The person did not dig around. They reached straight in, through all the others, and pulled out the avocado one. First try. Without looking. Only a true fan knows where the avocado is. Then they put it back, patted the lid, and took the whole Jar.

CASE #1031 · WITNESS STATEMENT

D · FOR SQUAD EMBER

Statement of the Mummy

They didn't carry the Jar. They hugged it. Both arms. Chin on the lid. Like it was a puppy. I have seen a lot of people carry a lot of things past this shelf, and nobody hugs candy like that.

Station lead: what each one means

- Nightshade: squeezed one and whispered "so satisfying."
- Raven: squeezed one, squeezed another, giggled.
- Specter: knew exactly which one was the avocado.
- Ember: hugged the jar like a puppy.

All four add up to the same fact: the thief loves squishies. That's Clue 4. If a squad reads theirs and says "so... they like squishies?", say: "Write that down, detective."
