SEND WITH THE SCRIPT

Self-recording guide

Reality-TV confessional style: you sit alone and talk to the camera, deadpan. Every script is a self-contained monologue with no interviewer, so you can prop up your own phone and record it in five minutes whenever you have a free moment.

Setup

- Nobody films you. Prop your phone horizontal against a stack of books or a mug, at face height, about an arm's length away. Sit in a chair against a plain wall or a bookshelf.
- Light: face a window or a lamp. Don't sit with a window behind you.
- Eyeline: look just to the side of the lens, as if a producer is sitting next to the phone. Glancing at the lens once or twice is fine.
- Tone: deadpan beats hammy. You are a sincere person who has nothing to hide and is slightly annoyed to be asked.

Recording

- The script: read it from a second screen or a printout taped just under the phone. The (beat) and (pause) marks are where the laughs live. Hold them longer than feels natural.
- Takes: two max. Send the slightly flubbed one. Don't edit anything.
- Length: 60 to 90 seconds. Start recording, wait two seconds, begin. Stop two seconds after the last line.
- Send it: text or AirDrop the raw video to the room parent. They add the title card and load it onto the classroom laptop.

The ask (email or text to each suspect)

Subject: 5 minutes of acting for the 4th grade Halloween party?

Hi [Name],

Mrs. Driscoll's class Halloween party on Oct 30 is a whodunit, and the kids are going to investigate four staff "suspects." Would you be one of the three who record a statement? All it takes is a 90-second video of yourself that you can record alone on your phone whenever you have a free minute. No one films you, no one edits you, and you don't need to attend the party.

Attached is your script. It's a monologue, so just talk to the camera. Quick tips:
• Phone horizontal, propped at face height, plain wall behind you
• Look just beside the lens, like a producer is sitting there
• Deadpan. Sincere. Slightly annoyed to be asked.
• Hold the pauses. Two takes max. Send me the raw video by Oct 23.

The kids will watch it on the projector during the party and, I promise, lose their minds. Thank you!

[Your name], room parent for Mrs. Driscoll's class · [phone]

The Custodian gets a different ask: "You're a suspect who declined to comment. That's it. That's the whole job. Please act shifty in the hallway on Oct 30."

VIDEO 2 — THE GYM TEACHER

self-recorded monologue, ~75 sec · Zero information. Genuinely does not understand squishies and is a little offended to be asked.

TITLE CARD · INTERVIEW 2 · THE GYM TEACHER · 11:05 AM

(Sit. Whistle around your neck if you have one. Look just beside the camera. You are missing a dodgeball unit for this.)

I'm missing a dodgeball unit for this, so.

Where was I at 2:15 yesterday? Gym. Where I always am. Inflating things. Deflating things. The cycle of life.

Did I go near Mrs. Driscoll's room? I go near every room. The hallway is my warm-up lap.

(long sigh)

Okay. Can I say something about these squishies? I don't see what these kids see in squishies anyway. You squeeze it. It goes back. You squeeze it again. It goes back again. That's it. That's the whole thing. I just don't understand the obsession these days.

(beat)

So no, I didn't take that jar. Why would I take a whole jar of something I don't understand? You want to steal something, steal a good jump rope. Those are valuable.

(pause. Look down at your shirt.)

And yes, I'm wearing orange. It's a school color. Half this building is wearing orange. (look back up) Are you writing that down?

(beat)

Last thing. Whoever has those squishies: there's a whole class of kids out there who can run a mile but can't go a day without squeezing a foam avocado. Think about that.

(stand up)

I'm going back to the gym.

(Walk out of frame. Stop recording.)
